Materials Required

- Provided phishing example

Phishing Example

A final-year student, Aman, receives a LinkedIn message saying:

“You are shortlisted for a Remote Software Developer role at Google.
Salary: ₹18 LPA.
Pay ₹2,499 as verification fee. Limited seats. Pay now to confirm.”

a) What type of cybercrime is happening here?

☐ Phishing / Online Job Scam (Advance Fee Fraud)

The scammer pretends to be from Google and asks for money to cheat the student.

b) List 3 red flags that show it is a scam

1. Asking for a verification fee, which genuine companies never do.
 2. Unrealistic salary with no interview or selection process.
 3. Use of urgent words like “Limited seats” and “Pay now.”

c) What should he do to verify if a job offer is real?

- Check the official company website or careers page.
- Verify the email or message source (official domain only).
- Contact the company through official contact details.
- Never pay money for any job offer.

Cyber Crime: Phishing Job Scam

Situation:

A final-year student, Aman, receives a LinkedIn message claiming he is shortlisted for a remote Software Developer job at Google and is asked to pay ₹2,499 as a verification fee.

a) What type of cybercrime is happening?

📁 Phishing / Online Job Scam (Advance Fee Fraud)

The scammer pretends to be a real company to cheat the victim and take money.

b) Three red flags that show it is a scam

1. Asking for money – Genuine companies never ask candidates to pay fees.
2. Unrealistic job offer – High salary with no interview process.
3. Urgency – Messages like "Pay now" and "Limited seats" create pressure.

c) What should he do to verify if a job offer is real?

- Check the company's official website and careers page.
- Verify the email domain (e.g., @google.com).
- Search online to see if the offer is reported as a scam.
- Contact the company through official contact details.
- Never pay money for a job offer.
